This image shows a dark, textured surface, likely a book cover or endpaper. The texture is grainy and uneven, with various shades of black and dark gray. There are some lighter, irregular patches and what appear to be small white spots or dust specks scattered across the surface. The overall appearance is aged and worn.

This image is a high-contrast, black-and-white photograph. It features a dark, granular background with a prominent, bright, and somewhat irregular shape in the center. This central shape has a jagged, almost star-like or fractal-like pattern, suggesting it might be a reflection on a textured surface or a hole in a dark material. The overall texture is grainy and noisy.
